

Sponsored Seminar by  Springer

“Publishing Your Research: Writing a scientific paper and submitting to the right journal”

Lecturer:
Alexandrine Chernet,
Executive Editor, Springer

This seminar is intended to any scientists interested in better understanding the journey of a scientific paper: from its writing to its dissemination.
We will discuss what happens once submitted to a journal. Who is behind the scene? Who are the teams handling your manuscript and what are their expectations?
It will offer you tools to support your choice for the right journal type and model (subscription, hybrid, open access, etc.) for your research best visibility.
You will be encouraged to ask any questions you have on journals and publishers.

Date & Time:

- 1) Tue. 21 Apr. 16:30-18:30
- 2) Wed. 22 Apr. 10:30-12:30
